Hello your honor,

Let me start this off by saying these last 19 months has given me time to reflect on my past, present, and future. Growing up my household was very family orientated enjoyed living with my mother, grandmother and both of my uncles. As a kid my father was hardly around, we never shared a bond, I don't recall a time he ever took me to school or to the park to spend quality time. During my time at MCC we began to speak and I learned his reasons for not being present in my life. As of right now we're working on building a better relationship.

My uncle Duane was my role model, he's the main reason I enjoyed my childhood so much. He played games with me, he walked me to school, we basically did everything he was my father figure. As I got older he taught me how to be a man and how to be a great father to my son. His tragical death still effects me till this day. He died the day before my nineteenth birthday and it has been hard for me to celebrate ever since. To cope with reality I started taking Xanax and Percocets. The pills helped me sleep and helped escape the grief I was going through. At the time moment I didn't realize the bad decisions I was making while I was on the pills. I wasn't in the right state of mind.

I didn't notice I had an addiction until I joined the Nonresidential Drug Abuse Treatment program here at MCC. I learned about the devastating effects of drugs and I'll never do them again. While at MCC a close friend of mine died due to bad drugs that is another reason why I will never do them again. Besides the NDAT Program I attended twenty-seven other programs to better myself. What I learned from anger management, lead by example, and commercial drivers license training class will help me through out life. Anger Management taught me to always stop and think of consequences , Lead by Example showed me I can't actually get out of here and do something productive with my life and the CDL training class provided me a direction to head in for a job when i am released.

What matters to me most is family and I feel that I have let mine down. When I'm released I'm focusing on being there for my son not just my son but my uncle's son as well. I feel that it is my responsibility to be there for him the way my uncle was there for me. I know me being here effects my mother the most. I don't want to keep stressing her while she's sick knowing I should be there for her. I'm disappointed in myself for leaving her out there and having her come to MCC for visits.

It's difficult to put in words how happy I am that I received my G.E.D. During my time at MCC I had the time to focus on my education. I attended classes and took advantage of the tutors I had in my unit. When I am released I will like to further my education. As soon as I'm released I'm going to make it my priority to further my education and focus on learning a trade. Most of all I want to be around my family more. I'm going to say with my grandparents. My dad lives there as well it's going to give a chance to have the father and son bond I always needed. I believe my support system consist of my mother, my son, my aunt and my grandparents. They supported me the most therefore I will not let them down. They will make sure I wont slip and be the man that I know I can be. Thank you for reading my letter your honor.
